NLB Brokerage

Brokerage- Financial instrument trading

In addition to the NLB fees listed under Items 1 through 9, for each provision of services the direct costs related to the transactions using the financial instrument account are charged in the amount and using the same method as they are charged by other institutions and financial brokers to NLB d.d. in relation to the provision of individual services, and are related especially but not exclusively to: the direct costs of markets, execution partners, global and local depositors/administrators etc. (hereinafter: Direct Costs).

These Direct Costs are subject to the tariff of other institutions and financial brokers and change independently from NLB d.d. An overview of the currently applicable Direct costs is in Attachment 1.

NLB d.d. reserves the right to change the Direct Costs in Attachment 1 at any time in case of a change of the Direct Costs and take them into account and charge them as they are charged to NLB d.d. by financial institutions, financial brokers and other institutions in relation to the services provided for the account of the client.

1. NLB financial instrument account opening fee

The NLB fees are charged when a financial instrument account is opened, and the Direct Costs are charged when a financial instrument account is opened or closed.

1.3.	Corporate clients - enhanced due diligence pursuant to the ZPPDFT-1	EUR 250.00

2. NLB Financial instrument account management fee

The NLB fees are charged semi-annually, at the beginning of each half-year. If an account is opened in the middle of the half-year, the NLB fee is charged proportionally until the end of the calendar half-year depending on the number of remaining months. If a contractual relationship is terminated, the already charged fees are not refunded. The KDD financial instrument account management fee is included in the NLB financial instrument account management fee and is not charged additionally.

2.1.	Retail clients ¹	EUR 3.10 per month
2.2.	Corporate clients	EUR 6.25 per month
2.3.	Escrow accounts	EUR 15.00 per month

¹ Retail clients who use electronic commerce are entitled to a 50% discount for account management fee.

3. NLB Financial instruments safekeeping fees

The NLB fees and the Direct Costs (Attachment 1) are charged semi-annually, at the end of each half-year. The basis for the NLB d.d. fees and the direct costs of KDD for safekeeping of financial instruments registered with KDD is the average monthly financial instrument portfolio value as calculated by KDD per month in accordance with their applicable methodology of financial instrument valuation. The basis for the NLB d.d. fees and the direct costs of global/local administrators or sub-depositors for safekeeping of foreign financial instruments is the average monthly foreign financial instrument portfolio value as calculated by the global/local administrators or sub-depositors for the calendar month in accordance with their applicable methodology of financial instrument valuation.

10. Notes about this Tariff

1. The validity of this Tariff is from and including 01/01/2023; its entering into validity puts the Tariff of 01/07/2019 out of force
2. All services of NLB d.d. listed in this Tariff, except for tariff items where this is specifically stated are VAT-exempt based on the Value Added Tax Act.
3. Whenever a fee for a service provided is not defined in the Tariff, NLB and the client define it in a conversation over a recorded telephone line or in writing. The amount of the fee is also defined in the same way when NLB d.d. and the client agree on a different fee amount which is better for the client than the fee defined herein.
4. Electronic commerce:
The clients who operate electronically with NLB d.d. when performing services that are subject to this Tariff, are entitled to a discount/reduced amount of some fees as defined for the tariff items 2.1., 8.3. and 8.4. Electronic commerce under the tariff items 2.1., 8.3. and 8.4. is considered if the client has a valid consent for electronic notifying (Form: Consent for sending information by electronic mail).
5. The clean copy of the Tariff with all Attachments is available at the branch offices of the NLB branch network, on the www.nlb.si website or directly from your broker.
6. The use of the Tariff is shown in Attachment 2 and includes an informative calculation of NLB d.d. fees and Direct Costs for individual standard cases. The specific calculation of NLB transaction fees and Direct Costs for individual transactions is available when placing an order, and the disclosure method differs in relation to the order placement method.
